

What is the difference between an Official and an Unofficial Transcript?

Both the official and the unofficial transcript contain the same information about a student's academic record: a chronological list of classes, grades, and credits. Northern Lights will accept either one.

Only an official transcript includes the Registrar's signature, the college seal, and the date it was issued. An official transcript is delivered in a sealed envelope which should not be opened by anyone except the addressee. It is a legal document. There is usually a fee for each official transcript ordered.

An unofficial transcript is the student's academic record without signature, seal, date, or sealed envelope. There is usually no fee. A student may obtain an unofficial transcript by following the same procedure as for requesting an official transcript.

I am able to print out a copy of the courses that I have taken directly from my college or university website. Can I use this to verify my education and coursework?

No. This document does not contain enough information about your academic record, and it cannot be used as a transcript equivalent.

How can I get a copy of my college transcript?

1. Get all your information together before requesting your transcript. You'll need to include your social security number, the address where you want the transcript sent, your address and phone number, a statement authorizing the college or university to release the information, and your signature.
2. Find the address and phone number of the college or university from which you graduated. You may be able to find this in the phone book or on the internet. Remember that the Registrar's office usually handles transcript requests.
3. Call ahead to make certain your transcript is readily available, and to inquire about any processing fees. If you have any outstanding fees or if your records are not on computer, your request may be delayed.
4. Check if your higher education institution has a Web page. Many schools now handle transcript requests online, saving you time and postage.
5. Send your request - along with any pertinent processing fees - to the Registrar's office of the college or university from which you graduated.
